Neo-Assyrian cuneiform signs in Unicode

Assyrian, version 13.00, March 2020
available under the general UFAS licence
UNICODE FONTS FOR ANCIENT SCRIPTS
GEORGE DOUROS

Assyrian provides the signs missing from the fifth column of ‘List of cuneiform signs’ in Wikipedia. The actual shapes are based on “List of Neo-Assyrian Cuneiform Signs” by Studt, Borger and Ellermeier. Neo-Assyrian cuneiform signs are encoded in Unicode’s Cuneiform blocks, or are available through OpenType features: liga, salt and aalt. See ASSYRIAN.ODS for more details.
